Mt. Zion Pilgrim Mountain - Mt. Zion Pilgrim Mountain is in the peaceful town of Brgy. Laguit Padilla, Bugallon. Mt. Zion is not intended to be a tourist destination, yet it has drawn many tourists, particularly during the Lenten season. It's a long trek to the summit, where there's a replica of the Christ the Redeemer monument from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, but the view is worth the effort. There are 14 stations of the cross along the way, as well as an abundance of natural beauty. Even if you are not religious and simply like the wonderful outdoors, you should attempt hiking Mt. Zion.

Lingayen Boardwalk - Like the sunflower maze, the Lingayen Boardwalk isn't widely known among Pangasinan's tourist attractions. This government initiative was planned to supplement the Lingayen Gulf length.

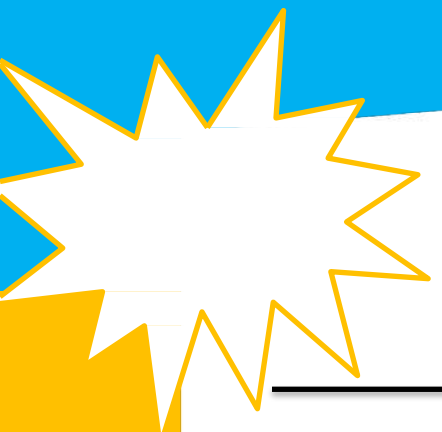

It's a wonderful location to unwind and take in the breathtaking views and sunsets. It's also close to a few attractions, including the local concert hall and Veterans Park.

Pugad Adventure

Pugad includes four adventure stations linked by three zip lines. Zipline 1 connects Stations 1 and 2 at a length of 400 feet and a height of 250 feet above the earth. Zipline 1 may be used to transport Superman. Zipline 2 connects Stations 2 and 3 and is the quickest 250-foot line at 15 seconds. Station 3 is 60 feet above the ground and offers rappelling and wall climbing. Station 4 is inside the resort and is linked to Station 3 via Zipline 3. The massive swing is at Station 2, whereas the Australian run-down is near Station 3.

Hundred Islands

The Hundred Islands are a tropical paradise with clean seas, coral reefs, and isolated beaches. Explore the islands by boat and find secret coves and lagoons or go for a swim and snorkel with a variety of aquatic life. Try cliff diving or zip lining if you're feeling daring. Whether you're traveling alone or with family and friends, Hundred Islands provides something for everyone. Spend languid afternoons on the beach, eating delicious seafood, or simply relaxing and soaking up the rays. Make your reservation today and explore a world of wonder and beauty.

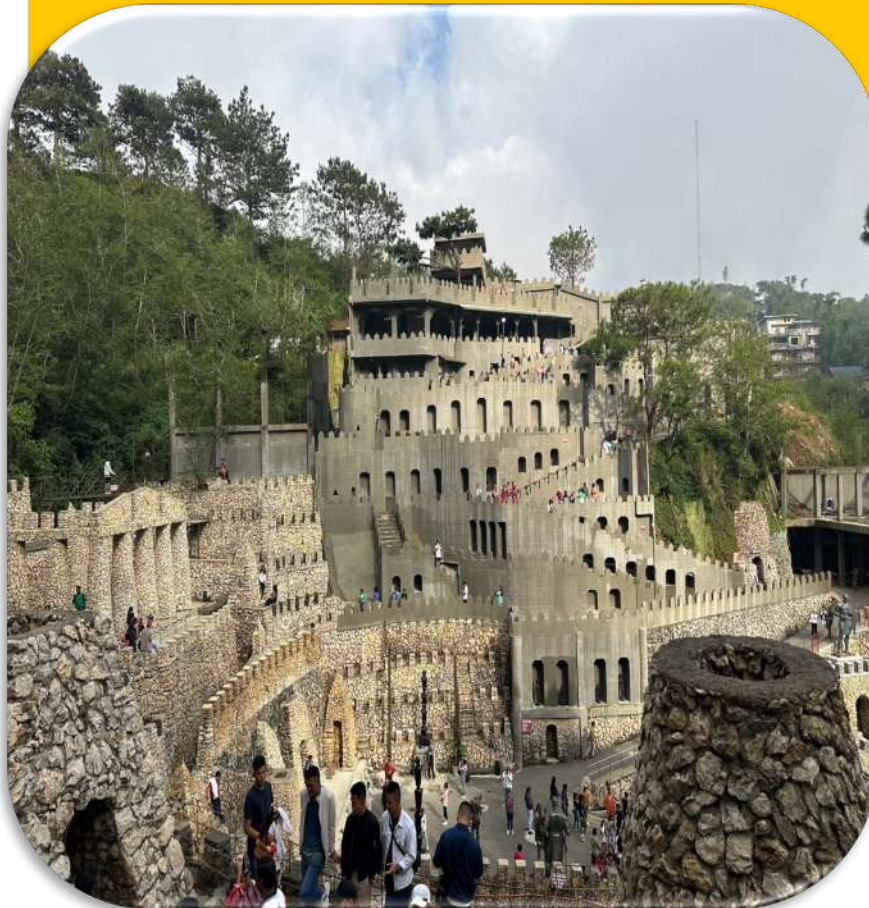

Baguio City

Baguio City, the summer capital of the Philippines, is nestled in the mountains and offers a refreshing escape from the city. Enjoy the breathtaking views of the Cordillera mountains and experience the vibrant culture of the Igorot people. Stroll along Session Road and indulge in mouth-watering delicacies at the night market. For adventure seekers, go on a hiking adventure to see the stunning rice terraces of Ifugao. Baguio City's cool weather, stunning scenery, and warm hospitality make it the perfect destination for your next getaway!
